

HIGH AND HAWAII PLAN RETURN BASKETBALL

First Year That the College Has Taken Up the Sport and Victory Over McKinley Team Strengthened by All-Star Men Is Greatly Encouraging

The College of Hawaii basketball team started off well when it beat the High School team last Saturday night with a score of 15 to 10. That game was the first the college has played this year, but there are many more good ones in sight. Another with the High School team has been scheduled for next Saturday night, and there is no doubt but that fast ball will again be played.

The manager of the College of Hawaii basketball team has also been trying to make arrangements for a game with the Cubs. This would certainly be a good one if it can be arranged.

When the College team defeated High they played a fine game. They did more than defeat a High School team, for there were two All-Star players working for McKinley, who went in because two of the regular High players failed to show up.

Two of the College's strongest and best players are Melnecke and Marcellino and they showed their worth in the game on Saturday. Marcellino, who is captain of the team, plays center and plays well. Melnecke is a forward, with strength for a partner.

Both are fast, but Melnecke excels a little on basket shooting and team work. Pratt and Couzens make two splendid guards and finish up a team that has a good future before it. Substitutes for the team are Clark, Lemke and Barnhart.

The game scheduled for next Saturday will be played at 7:15 at the "Y" as last time. High School expects to have its regular team, which will eliminate the two All-Star men.

This is the first year the College has taken up basketball, but judging from the energetic way in which the players are pushing things this year, they intend to make the sport stick. The College contains many good athletes as has been demonstrated, and all that is necessary was for them to get together in order to make themselves seen and heard on the athletic field. Much is to be expected from the College in that line.

FIGHT GOSSIP FROM GOTHAM

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Freddie Welsh, the lightweight champion of England, has postponed his trip to this country, owing to the death of his mother. Welsh had made arrangements to sail for America after the bout between Jim Driscoll and Owen Moran at the National Sporting club of London on next Monday night.

Max Wells, former lightweight champion of England, and Eugene McEgan, former champion of Australia, are going to fight again. They have been matched for a 20 round bout, at a show to be brought off at the National Sporting club, London, on February 24. McEgan was awarded the decision over Wells on a foul in the fourteenth round of a 15 round contest on September 16, 1912.

Al Lippe, manager of Billy Papke, has cabled for the latter to sail for Paris not later than February 5, as he wants him to start training early for his 20 round battle with Frank Klaus, which takes place at the Cirque de Paris on March 5. In a letter Lippe says he is so confident that Papke will defeat Klaus that he intends to bet a big chunk of money on his chances. Papke will wager $1000 that he gets the decision.

Tommy Murphy, who is to fight Joe Mandot, a 20 round bout at San Francisco on Washington's birthday, today received his railroad tickets for the trip to the coast from Jim Coffroth. Tommy says he will leave for San Francisco on February 6, which will give him 11 days in which to get into shape for the fight.

"Mandot is a great fighter," said Murphy. "I think I have an excellent chance of winning."

Eddie McGorty has evidently lost his prestige as a drawing card in this city, for in his 10 round bout with Freddie Hicks at the Fairmont Athletic club on Wednesday the gross receipts only amounted to $1300. Of this sum McGorty received 35 per cent, which amounted to $455. Only two months ago McGorty drew down over $6000 for boxing Mike Gibbons at the Garden.

OWEN MORAN DRAWS WITH JEM DRISCOLL

LONDON, January 27.—Tom Driscoll, the British featherweight champion, and Owen Moran of England, fought a twenty-round draw tonight. The contest took place at the National Sporting Club, where a great crowd witnessed a fast battle.

Driscoll was the cleverer of the two, but Moran's aggressiveness evened up the honors. It was an interesting bout to witness, but nothing spectacular took place. Driscoll worked a straight left that bothered Moran somewhat, but the lad who battled with Ad Wolgast for the lightweight championship only a short time ago got in some effective blows with his right hand.

MRS. DESCH GETS PRAISE FROM THE COAST

Mrs. Terie Desch, who was a familiar figure at Waikiki all last summer, is attracting a lot of notice on the coast on account of her speed swimming, and many are the bouquets handed her by the San Francisco papers. None of them note the fact, however, that Mrs. Desch was defeated in a match race here by Miss Ruth Stacker, of this city. Possibly their statements as to Mrs. Desch's invincibility would not be so positive if they were aware of this incident.

Speaking of Mrs. Desch, and some of her recent performances, the San Francisco Call of recent date says:

Forty seconds does not seem very fast for a 50 yard swim and there are first class high school boy swimmers today who can better that mark, but there is not a woman swimmer the length of the Pacific coast except Mrs. Terie Desch who is capable of better time.

The woman's world record for 50 yards is held by Fanny Durack, the Australian maid who went to Stockholm and made nearly a clean sweep of the girls' swimming races at the Olympiad. Miss Durack has been called a human mermaid, and many of her marks compare very favorably with some of the men's performances—more particularly over the 100 to 150 yards. Miss Durack has established a record of 31 seconds for the 50 yards, which is the present world's mark for this distance.

It is hardly likely that Mrs. Desch ever could reach that figure, but there is not the least doubt she could take a goodly chunk off her present coast record of 40 seconds. Mrs. Desch now holds both the 50 and 100 yard coast records for women.

CHINESE NEW YEAR BASEBALL

Chinese New Year, which falls on February 5 (tomorrow), will be observed by the Chinese residents of this city. According to the scores and scores of requests from the Chinese community, Manager Kim Tong Ho and Trainer Sam Hop of the All-Chinese have promised to furnish them the amusement for the afternoon. The two gentlemen will have two Chinese teams going up against one another, and the players will be the best selected among the Chinese ball tossers, including all the utility men and promising youngsters that the All-Chinese team carries.

The players have been selected and the greatest rivalry now exists between the two Chinese teams. Trainer Hop's team will be known as the "Long Runs," while Manager Kim Tong Ho's team goes under the name of "Simon Pifres." Each team is out to give the other a good thrashing, and each team claims to know all the weak points of the other. The Simon Pifres will have Kan Yen and "Handsome" Luck Yee as the battery, while the Long Runs will depend upon Foster Robinson, Ahong and Hoon Ki. This will also be the third duel between the two rival pitchers. Hoon Ki is the utility man of the All-Chinese and a pitcher in the Junior League, but he will don the mask tomorrow to show that he is not a novice behind the bat. Kim Tong Ho's team intends to win, for the mothers of En Sue, Apau Kau and Sing Hung will be on the grandstand to cheer for the Simon Pifres.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock and the full lineup will be as follows: Kim Tong Ho's Simon Pifres: Kan Yen, c; Luck Yee, p; Apau Kau, 1b; Ah Lee, 2b; Lai Tin, 3b; Ah Kai, ss; Hoon Cheong, rf; En Sue, cf; Sing Hung, lf.

Sam Hop's Long Runs: Hoon Ki, c; Foster Ahong, p; Albert Akana, 1b; A. Asan, 2b; S. Tyau, 3b; V. Ayau, ss; Tin Yen, rf; Ping Kong, cf; A. Akana, lf.

Manager Ho is out to make it twelve straight, while Trainer Sam Hop said that it would be an even dozen for his team.

MODEL OF FAMOUS YACHT AMERICA FOUND AT LAST

WORCESTER, Mass.—A wooden model believed to be the original design of the famous yacht America, which captured the Royal Yacht Squadron cup in 1851, has been found among relics stored at the headquarters of the local Grand Army post. Congressman Butler Ames who owns the America, has asked the post to sell him the model, which he wishes to present to the New York Yacht club, holder of the cup. He says that the model disappeared after it had been taken from the cabin of the America when the yacht was scuttled in St. Johns river, Florida, by Confederate forces who used her as a privateer.

The America is now tied up in Fort Point channel. She is still in excellent condition and probably will be under sail again.

Woodrow Wilson says he is still not ready to name his cabinet, but will later announce everything at once.

CHAMPION BASKETBALL TEAM OF 25TH INFANTRY.

The recently arrived Twenty-fifth Infantry goes in strong for basketball, and it is likely that when the championship of the "Y" League is decided, the regiment will be heard from. The soldiers are very anxious to stack up against local talent, and measure respective abilities.

Gay Paree Bonanza For Clever Boxers

Willie Lewis, Frank Klaus, Harry Lewis, Dixie Kid, Sam McVey, Joe Jeanette and Billy Papke have found Paris the garden spot of the fight universe. Between them they have harvested millions of francs in the French capital, and apparently there are more to come.

Paris probably is the pugilistic center of the world when one only views the monetary returns. Fighters are paid better in Paris than anywhere else for twenty-round battles. McVey and Jeanette swung their fists before a monstrous coliseum of spectators when they fought that memorable fifty-round contest in Paris in 1909. McVey was the king of the boulevards at that time, following a string of knockouts over Jack Scales, Ben Taylor, Jewey Smith, Harry Shearing, Billy Rickard and Bill Warren, and a twenty-round decision over Jeanette. The latter combat so excited the Frenchmen that they matched him and McVey for a meeting to a finish. The big negroes made a small fortune out of the affair and their efforts were considered worth the money.

Jeanette had two more bouts in France before leaving for home, and he secured a big guarantee for each performance. McVey also lingered a while and gathered abundant in shekels.

At the same time that Jeanette and McVey were enhancing their green-backed rolls, Willie Lewis was making his own plea to Parisians. He fought seven fights there in 1908 and won them all by knockouts. France went wild over him. The following year he again went to Paris and had the same kind of success. He has made three visits since then and each time hitched onto a bundle of money, besides being wine and dined and having rare vintage named after him, not to mention the free use of numerous historic chateaux overlooking the Seine.

Papke just got a $3,000 guarantee for his fight with Carpenter. But he didn't take it. Inasmuch as the house came to $18,000, Billy overlooked the smaller sum and made for the percentage. Frank Klaus and Carpenter drew a great crowd when they mixed a few months ago.

Harry Lewis, the Philadelphia welterweight, grew rich on thirteen fights in France. Carpenter is worth thousands.

Papke just returned from Paris a few weeks ago, but he's going back soon. He doesn't care to overlook the gold that he's likely to get. Klaus is figuring on another trip and McVey is planning to give the Parisian game a play before long.

This trio should make a handsome clearing.

ANOTHER GUARDED DEED ON RECORD

William D. Westervelt has sold to R. F. Clayton and wife lot 47 in the Beachwalk tract for $1100. The deed contains anti-liquor, anti-billboard, anti-store, anti-factory and anti-nuisance generally clauses, as in the case of another sale in the same tract recently reported.

AVERAGES SHOW WHY CHINESE WON ELEVEN GAMES STRAIGHT

BATTING AND FIELDING averages of the All-Chinese ball team for the eleven games played since the team's return from the mainland invasion, have been compiled by Scorer Sam Hop. A careful study of the figures is the best argument that can be advanced for the uniform success of the aggregation, for the Chinese outfit and out-fielded all their rivals, besides scoring nearly four times the total number of runs that were chalked up against them.

The Chinese scored 79 runs in the eleven games, while the combined tallies of the opposition amounted to only 22, an average of 2 per game. The Chinese made 105 hits, as against 60, and stole 46 bases to 13 purloined by the opposition. On the other hand, 82 of the team retired by the strike out route, while the Chinese pitchers fanned only 60.

Individual batting honors go to "Chief" Akana, who collected the healthy average of .452. Next comes En Sue with an even .400, while Ah Lee is the only man in the three hundred class, with .333, in three games.

MILLS IS AFTER CROSS COUNTRY LAURELS

Mills Institute, though unable to do much on the soccer field, is making arrangements to enter the cross country run, and from the looks of the available material should be able to make something out of it. There was a turnout of twelve boys for the first practice, and in numbers at least, this compares very favorably with the number from the other schools interested.

Not much has been done in the way of practice at yet, as the soccer schedule was completed only last week, but the boys who are turning out seem serious, and ready to work hard. The cross country run is one of the important events of the season, and if Mills can turn out a good team it will do much to establish a reputation. The run comes off this month, and there is not much time left for practice, but if the boys are ready to work they have a fair chance to put out a winning team.

One of the essentials for a cross country runner is good wind. Several of the cross country candidates play soccer and there is nothing better than that to develop the bellows. If the boys will practice regularly there is no reason why they should not put out a team with which to even up things between them and Kamehameha. The cross country work will also be a help to the track men.

SWIMMING RACES FOR PUN. GIRLS

The latest thing at Punahou is a girls' swimming meet, which is now being planned. Mrs. Driver, the athletic instructor who has recently taken up the girls' athletics at Punahou, has been conducting swimming classes every week. Her pupils are taking such an interest in the sport that the idea of a swimming meet among them was suggested, and arrangements are now being made.

The actual date for the meet has not yet been decided, but it is probable that it will be held in three weeks, or possibly two. Practices are being held, and other arrangements are being made to make the meet one of the big features at Punahou.

More is being done this year and more interest is being shown in athletics than in any previous year, and this is especially so with the girls' athletics. This is practically the first year that the girls have actually taken up good, hard athletic work but they certainly are going into things now. The good results of the work are already evident and there is no doubt but that they will keep it up.

TRANS - PACIFIC BOWLING THIS EVENING

Oakland and Honolulu to Battle for Alley Supremacy and Results to Be Flashed by Wireless—Will Roll Simultaneously

Honolulu rollers will try conclusions with Coast alley cracks this evening, in the first trans-Pacific match in the history of the sport. The difference in time has been allowed for, and the first ball will trundle down the "Y" alleys here at exactly the same time that wood begins to fall in the pits of the Oakland Y. M. C. A.

The inter-association contests have been arranged by correspondence, and according to the agreement, the series will consist of the best three in five matches. Each match is to consist of three games, total play to count. Five-man teams will compete.

Rolling will start here this afternoon at 5:15, while the Oakland alley men won't go into action until 7:15. The moment that the last string is completed, the results will be flashed by wireless, arrangements having been made with the Federal Co. at both ends of the line, to rush the messages through, so that before players and spectators leave the drives the results should be known. It is thought that the Honolulu-Oakland series will arouse interest in long distance bowling matches, and that San Francisco, Seattle and Los Angeles may come in the next time a wireless match is planned.

HEFFELFINGER WON FOUR 'Y'

NEW HAVEN.—Some interesting points were brought out here recently by the statistics compiled from the list of those who have earned the right since 1852, when such awards first were presented, to wear the "Y" sweater. According to the Yale News during this period 145 men have gained the distinction in two of the major sports. Thirteen received the coveted honor in three branches, while only one man, W. W. Heffelfinger, '91, has attained this in baseball, football, track and crew. "L. L. Shepley, '96, and M. H. Newman, '92, achieved the honor of having won three "Y"s in their freshman year, while the latter and G. W. Woodruff, '95, are the only ones who have received the reward in three sports for two years.

Of those to whom have been awarded letters in two branches, fifteen received them for football and baseball. This number is followed closely by the thirty-two in football and track and thirty-six in crew and football, while only three have done so in baseball and track. To C. F. Brown, '96, belongs the unique distinction of being the single person who accomplished the feat in crew and baseball in the same year. Thirty-one have won their "Y" through four or more years on the football team and the same number on the track team. Twenty-five have the same record in baseball while only thirteen were able to duplicate in crew.

Nine have gained the letter in two sports for four or more years. Camp '80 and '82 M. S. received a "Y" twelve times, seven of them in football. L. K. Hall, '82 and '83 L. S. won the award six times in crew. C. S. Shorrill, '86 and '91 L. S. achieved the same success in track, and A. A. Stagg, '88 did likewise in baseball with the help of a post-graduate course in the divinity school.

CALIFORNIA DAMAGE QUEER

According to a story arriving from San Francisco yesterday, the cruiser California has been suddenly discovered to have sustained serious damages along the port side of the ship, below the armor belt and the water line, where the side is crushed for distance of 175 feet. The greatest mystery enshrouds the affair, and a board of inquiry is now probing it.
